About me

Cardiff, United Kingdom

I currently work as a 'Host Buddy' for Nando's, and a 'Ghost Walk guide' for Cardiff History & Hauntings - yes, I take people on haunted history tours in the dark!

In-between these activities I am nurturing a career as a self employed actor. Still at the very birthing of my career; I eagerly anticipate new experiences with which to grow and expand.

In terms of education, I graduated with a 2-1 BA Honors in Drama in 2007. But since then I have expanded my knowledge and skill through self study and attending 'The Workshop' for actors in Cardiff.

Currently residing in Cardiff City, Wales.
